

Need to see someone about bone, joint, or muscle problems?

You can now see a specialist physiotherapist at this GP surgery without seeing your GP first.

The physiotherapist will assess your symptoms and offer specialist advice, referring you for a course of physiotherapy or to another service if needed. Ask at reception for more information.